

LAST SUNDAY'S BALL WAS BEST OF SEASON

Lihue-Homestead Game Was Longest In
Innings Of The Season's Baseball
Series

Makaweli Team Is Ahead

All Games Are Won By Teams On The Waimea Side—Elele Defeats Big
Stickers Badly

The Lihue fans were treated to some of the best ball of the season last Sunday, when a twelve inning game was played between the Lihue and Homestead teams. A tie resulted in the ninth inning, the score standing 8 to 8. From here on, it was a battle for blood until the twelfth inning, when the farmers plucked a run, and shut out the home team with a score of 9 to 8. The question of a "passed ball" resulted from a wild throw from second to third, the latter missing and allowing two runs, but when it was explained by the umpire that his decision was based upon an agreement of captains of both teams at the beginning of the game the matter was quickly passed over.

The Lihues should have won the game hands down but their lack of interest in their desertion of the field to witness a little disturbance out side of the grounds. They showed a decided lack of practice and team work also.

In Makaweli the Koloas got theirs too, at the rate of 8 to 6, which shows an improvement in the doughty little team. The Makawelis at present look to be easy winners, being so far in the lead that it is improbable any other team will defeat them.

Elele jumped on to the Kilauas and made the Big Stickers look very much like second raters. For some reason or other, Kilaua of late has not been up to her standard. However, in Sunday's game, the score stood 3 to 3 to the ninth inning, when the Elele team found every old curve that the redoubtable Wood could invent, and batted and swatted right and left, piling up six runs before the curtain dropped. It was a perfectly fascinating game, however, and was witnessed by the usual number of Kilaua's enthusiastic fans.

Passed Ball Defined

A passed ball is a legally delivered ball that the catcher should hold, or control with ordinary effort, but his failure to do so enables the batsman, who becomes a base runner on such pitched ball, to reach first base or a base runner to advance.

Governor Frear reports the homesteading situation on Kauai to be in very satisfactory condition. The Governor returned to Honolulu Sunday morning after spending several days in the mountains of the Garden Isle, chiefly on a pleasure trip. He, however, had time to look into Territorial business to some extent.

Applications will be opened for places in the Omoa settlement association, within a few days, the Governor stated, and another association is being organized to take up a tract of land at Lawai.

The homesteading on Kauai has generally been in connection with the plantations, and the homesteaders made up of laborers on the plantations who are enabled thus to secure a permanent home and sufficient ground to make them independent.
